

OpenClaw Multi-Agent Test Document

This is a test PDF for the OpenClaw E2E attachment test.

OpenClaw is a multi-agent intelligent scheduling system for LLM requests. It routes requests through five paths: `direct_local`, `gateway`, `k8s_gateway`, `multimodal`, and `local_inference`, using a Hermes Agent core scheduling layer with self-learning feedback loops and a Smart Router that scores request complexity across six dimensions.